ONE CENT. TODAY'S GAME!

OUR BOYS WILL BE ON THEIR OWN SOD.

They Will Tackle Covington -We Were Defrauded at Knoxville.

The Locals play the Covington Percials, one of the strongest teams in that ection, this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon, and it is due the boys that our citizens turn out en masse and give them a rousing welcome.

The Maysville Ball Club arrived home yesterday afternoon on the 1:36 C. and O. train as tired a set of genteel ball players as ever stepped off a train.

To a Lenger scribe last evening severa of the players told how they were treated in the "land of flowers," especially on the ball field.

The first game they fairly routed the 'Indians' —outclassed them at all points The second game the compliment was returned. That was the only game the Knoxville plugs were entitled to—all the rest belonged to Maysville. The umpires—save Denny—were all Jonahs of the worst sort. They were try-ing to win a reputation for the Knoxville club by giving Maysville—the best amateur club ever organized—the hot end of the decisions. There were hits upon top of hits made by the Maysville boys that were never credited at all, and when one of the "Indians" would roll one down to any part lightly would roll one down to any part lightly association. To the Maysville, Ev., August 1st.

To the Garden - Gerldenen be proport for the quarter ending, July 1st. of the infield and the fielder would fum ble the ball and the batter get life at first, they would give the fielder an error and the batter a hit. That's just a sample of how the boys were treated.

The only fair umpire they had was Denny, and he was told by one of the stockholders of the club that if he didn't roast the Maysvilles he would withdraw his subscription from the club.

If those people at Knoxville really think their club can beat the Locals, why don't they make arrangements to come up here and play a series of games in our large eautiful Park? They are a set of dirty ball-players from the Manager down to the most insignificant "rooter" in the town

SHOUT STOPS.

Last night was a great one for "rub ber." It was stretching all around the Central Hotel.

There was a ball game at Gallipolis Sunday in which the score at the end of the eighth inning stood 106 to 4.

the eighth inning stood 100 to 4.

The boys were kept busy last night telling the way they were roasted in the South, and it's a good thing some of those Knoxville people weren't here, or they would have gotten twelve hours under water.

The best game of the season will be on The best game of the season will be on August 8th. The Cincinnat Reds will be here on that date. They have been greatly strengthened since they were here before, and no doubt will give our lade a rub, but they'll meet 'em half way, go 'em one better and win. Our country cousins, nuts, uncles and all our kinfolk should not miss this opportunity of weeing the greatesy game of the season.

The boys must have played in a rock quarry at Frankfort. Relman bit the ball out to ceate for a good home run, but the stall hit a rock and bounced back, George only getting to first.

Harry Berte, formerly a member of the Cincinnant Manhatians, who is playing a fine indeld for the Richmonda, has developed into quite a batter. In a game with the Portsmouthe last Friday he got a triple, two doubles and three singles in six times up with the stick.

Yesterday's fronton Irontonian says:

"The crack Mayaville, Ky. team will reach home today after a successful tour of the Southern Lesgue cities. Manager Melville has out as line for a date with this crack Kentucky aggregation when they become settled after their trip. The baseball public of this city would turn out well to see the team that downed two of the big Leaguers."

The Frankfort Capital, in speaking of Monday's game at that place, says: "The Frankfort Baseball Club could not win from Mayaville yesterday, but they put up a good game and one that pleased the spectators. The fielding of the home team was sinnot faulties, but they could not get on to Reiman's curves. The Mayaville team is the strongert that has played here in many a day. While run ning backward Vandervere caught a long fly with one hand, and it was the feature of the game." The capital says of Treschay's game: "The second game between Frankfort and Mayaville was the best amateur exhibition ever seen here. The score stood to 0 in favor of Mayaville. Not a run was made till the ninth inning, and not a man reached third base till the Mayaville club made their run."

Washinstone, Aug. 1.—When Senor Mariscol, Mexican minister of foreign affairs, in discussing the refusal of his government to order the extradition of Chester W. Rowe, the defaulting Iowa county treasurer, upon the ground clean citizen and was therefore exempt from the operation of the treaty, said:

"The plain truth of the matter is there must be a better reciprocity on the part of the United States governation of the United States governational law.

"When a just case for extradition is presented by the United States. Mexican country of the Chester of sadjustment of extraction relations is most desirable.

Said a preminent official of the state department: "We have no extradition treaty with Germany as an independent power, notwithstanding our extractive relations with that country, states composing the empire and the different provinces of these treaties comedines lead to embarrassing and vexatious complications. But it is a difficult and dilatory proceeding, as Minister Mariscol points out, to secure a difficult and dilatory proceeding, as Minister Mariscol points out, to secure that the state of the st to be vigorous in negotiating new conventions."

Nothing official has been heard at the department from Mexico regarding the request of this government for the extradition of Rowe and his brother, but newspaper advices are to the effect that the treasurer will be prosecuted there as a Mexican citizen for "continuous embezziement," and his brother will be sent back to the United States.
